

American University Center of Provence

MARSEILLE

ADVANCED FRENCH IMMERSION PROGRAM + ARABIC
INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS, THE MIDDLE EAST
POLITICAL SCIENCE, INTERCULTURAL COMMUNICATION

Fall, Spring or Full-Year Options

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- A stimulating, ethnically and religiously diverse immersion setting in Marseille
- Pertinent courses taught by local French faculty
- French language and civilization – advanced level
- Arabic language and civilization – all levels
- One week of intensive study in Fez, Morocco (Fall and Spring)

THE AUCP DIFFERENCE

- Individual home-stay placement, both in Marseille and Morocco
- An all French-language environment
- On-going training in intercultural communication
- Weekly Community Service
- Personal Interest Activity
- Language Exchange Partner
- Optional January Term internship for full-year students

COURSE CREDIT AND CERTIFICATION

- 15 credit hours either through home university credit or via an official transcript from a US accredited institution
- An internationally recognized certificate attesting to French language competence according to norms set by the Council of Europe, for employment in the Francophone world *
- A highly recognized certificate attesting to cross-cultural competence, for employment in any and all international or culturally diverse settings. **

*TEF (Test d'évaluation de français) organized by the Paris Chamber of Commerce

IDI (Intercultural Development Inventory) created and distributed by Milton Bennett and Mitch Hammer, Ph.D.s

www.aucp.fr
info@aucp.fr